

How Do I...

Use the Experience Matrix?

It isn't possible to create a matrix to cover every possible property type. This is a guide to assist applicants in understanding reasonable maximums based upon professional norms.

This is NOT reflective of travel to and from a property. Travel does NOT count toward experience. This is NOT a guide reflecting billable hours. This is NOT a guide intending to include depositions, trial prep or testimony.

Most standard form reports allow for one applicant and one supervisor signature. Non-residential forms allow for more but the experience allowed diminishes with every co-signatory.

Associate Real Estate Trainee Appraisers are NOT permitted to submit any reviews for experience. By definition, Trainees are still learning and should NOT be rendering opinions on the work of superior credentialed appraisers.
