Adm. Code 1050], hereby issues this order for violations of the Act and Rules.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 1-3(a) of the Act states in relevant part:

No person, partnership, association, corporation or other entity shall engage in the business of brokering, funding, originating, servicing or purchasing of residential mortgage loans without first obtaining a license from the Secretary in accordance with the licensing procedure provided in this Article I and such regulations as may be promulgated by the Secretary.

2. Section 1-3(d-1) or the Act provides that the Secretary may issue orders against any person if the Secretary has reasonable cause to believe that an unsafe, unsound, or unlawful practice has occurred, is occurring, or is about to occur, if any person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate any law, rule, or written agreement with the Secretary, or for the purposes of administering the provisions of this Act and any rule adopted in accordance with this Act.
3. Section 1-3(e) of the Act provides that any person, partnership, association, corporation or other entity who violates any provision of this Section commits a business offense and shall be fined an amount not to exceed $25,000.
4. Section 1-4(c) of the Act states “soliciting, processing, placing, or negotiating a residential mortgage loan” shall mean for compensation or gain, either directly or indirectly, accepting or offering to accept an application for a residential mortgage loan, assisting or offering to assist in the processing of an application for a residential mortgage loan on behalf of a borrower, or negotiating or offering to negotiate the terms or conditions of a residential mortgage loan with a lender on behalf of a borrower including, but not limited to, the submission of credit packages for the approval of lenders, the preparation of residential mortgage loan closing documents, including a closing in the name of a broker.

5. Section 1-4(o) of the Act states “loan brokering,” “brokering,” or “brokerage service” shall mean the act of helping to obtain from another entity, for a borrower, a loan secured by residential real estate situated in Illinois or assisting a borrower in obtaining a loan secured by residential real estate situated in Illinois in return for consideration to be paid by either the borrower or the lender including, but not limited to, contracting for the delivery of residential mortgage loans to a third party lender and soliciting, processing, placing, or negotiating residential mortgage loans.
6. Section 1050.310(a) of the Rules states that any person, association, corporation or partnership that intends to operate as a licensee shall file an application for an Illinois license on a form prescribed by the Director with all other required materials.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

7. Solomon Butler (“Butler”) and Riu Murphy (“Murphy”), who were not properly registered as loan originators in Illinois, participated in a co-brokering scheme.
8. Co-brokering is committed when an unlicensed person or entity prepares loan documents (“loan package”) and submits said loan package to a properly licensed entity who in turn, without any additional work to the loan package, submits it to the lender. The properly licensed company and a properly registered/licensed loan originator would be listed on the documents within the loan package to further deceive the lender. Once the loan was funded, the unlicensed and licensed persons or entity split the commission.
9. Butler and Murphy created numerous sham, unlicensed mortgage companies to carry out the co-brokering scheme, including Butler & Associates, Murphy Mortgage Solutions and Murphy Home Solutions. Murphy and Butler also originated loans through American Home Lending Group which is a Missouri mortgage company not properly licensed in Illinois. As associates or partners, Murphy and Butler took loan applications for properties located in Illinois, ordered appraisals and/or ordered a Request for Evidence of Insurance (“REI”) for at least 17 Illinois borrowers. With the assistance of Illinois licensed companies such as Equity One Mortgage and Superior Mortgage LLC, d/b/a Superior Home Loans (License No. MB. 0006048; “Superior”) Murphy and Butler were able to have their loans funded through their co-brokering scheme.
10. Murphy Home Solutions, owned by Murphy, engaged in and benefited from the following co-brokering activities on behalf of American Home Lending Group in violation of the Act and Rules:

- a. ordering REI for borrower S.B.; and
- b. ordering REI for borrowers T.W. and C.M.

11. Murphy on behalf of Murphy Home Solutions acted in violation of the Act and Rules:
  - a. taking an Illinois loan application for borrower K.B.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

12. Murphy Home Solutions violated Section 1-3(a) of the Act and Section 1050.310(a) of the Rules by engaging in activities within the definitions of Section 1-4(c) and (o) of the Act without a license or lawful exemption under Section 1-4(d) of the Act.
13. Murphy Home Solutions has committed a business offense under Section 1-3(e) of the Act.
14. The Department has reasonable cause to believe Murphy Home Solutions has engaged in unsafe, unsound, or unlawful practices pursuant to Section 1-3(d-1) of the Act.

NOW IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT,

1. Murphy Home Solutions shall CEASE AND DESIST from engaging in the residential mortgage activities in the State of Illinois pursuant to Section 1-3(d-1) of the Act.
2. Murphy Home Solutions shall pay a FINE in the maximum amount of $25,000 as authorized under Section 1-3(e) of the Act. The fine is payable by certified check or money order within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this Order to the:
