How to File a Complaint Against a Licensee

If you wish to file a complaint against any individual or entity regulated by the Division of Real Estate (DRE), you may either use the Department's online complaint portal or complete one of the appropriate DRE Complaint Intake Forms and mail it with all attachments to the Division's Complaint Intake Unit in our Chicago office

555 West Monroe Street, Suite 500
Chicago, Illinois 60661

When submitting a complaint, please be as detailed as possible and include all forms of personal contact information so that DRE can contact you if necessary. After a preliminary review by the complaint intake unit, complaints will either be promptly forwarded to a Division investigator or closed. If DRE ultimately finds that there has been unlawful activity, it can order various forms of discipline upon the license or unlicensed person or entity.

Complaints Against Real Estate Professionals

DRE will investigate complaints to determine if there has been unlawful or unprofessional conduct by a real estate professional or an unlicensed person or entity.
