

IDFPR

Illinois Department of
Financial and Professional Regulation

Ciara Wagoner

Director of Legislative Affairs

Ciara Wagoner serves as the Director of Legislative Affairs for the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. In this capacity, she will develop and implement the Department's legislative agenda, while closely working with the Department's Secretary and Executive team. She will also oversee the Department's legislative team and work closely with the Illinois General Assembly and Joint Committee on Administrative Rules to advance the Department's legislative priorities.

Wagoner joined IDFPR in March 2019 as a member of the legislative affairs team. During this tenure, she focused primarily on legislation impacting the Division of Professional Regulation, including Doctors, Pharmacists, Dentists, and Nurses. Prior to joining IDFPR, Wagoner served as a staff member to the Illinois

House on agendas and media strategies for House Democrat legislators.

A Bethany, Illinois native, Wagoner is now a proud resident of the City of Springfield. Wagoner excels at analyzing, synthesizing, and relaying complex topics across a myriad of platforms and demographics. She holds a master's degree in political science with a concentration in Public Administration and State Government from Eastern Illinois University. Wagoner also holds a BA in political science from Eastern Illinois University, where she was admitted to both Pi Sigma Alpha (National Political Science Honor Society) and Phi Alpha Delta (Law Honor Society).

