Amanda Phelps

Deputy Director of Administrative Services

Amanda Phelps serves as the Deputy Director of Administrative Services for the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. In this capacity, she works closely with all divisions and units within the agency, overseeing operations and internal efficiencies. In addition, she will lead the efforts for the agency's plan to expand the responsibilities and oversight of the Administrative Services Unit in order to provide the highest level of service to licensees and constituents.

Amanda joined IDFPR in July 2019 as a member of the Executive Leadership Team, providing project management for a multitude of projects and operations vital to the agency's mission. Prior to joining IDFPR, Amanda served as a Legislative Aide to the Illinois House of Representatives Leadership Team for six years, becoming intimately familiar with public administration, including strategic communications, the legislative process, as well as the analysis and development of complex policy.
