

Join #IDFPROnTheRoad

for Consumer and Licensing Resources!

The Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (IDFPR) is hitting the road! We're looking to ensure Illinois residents and constituents have the support they need to work and thrive in Illinois.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE:

Let us know how we can visit and be a resource with these potential opportunities:

IDFPR Resource Table

We can attend events to provide resources and answer questions about the agency, including license applications, license status, consumer regulation, and job opportunities.

IDFPR "On the Spot" Constituent Support

We can also attend events in coordination with the agency's licensing team to provide in-person, individual licensing application updates.

IDFPR Presentation or Workshop

We can lead presentations or workshops about who we are, what we do, and what we offer. Topics include, but are not limited to:

- "How To" Apply for a License
- "How To" File a Consumer Complaint
- "How To" Become a Real Estate Appraiser
- Financial Literacy and Student Loan Workshop
- Community Reinvestment Act
- Banking Development Districts
- Student Loan Services
- Real Estate

If you're interested, email us at fpr.outreach@illinois.gov!

IDFPR Town Hall/Q&A

We can also lead a town hall-style event, in-person and/or virtually. Topics can range from general IDFPR-related issues to more industry and profession-specific.
