IV. OLD BUSINESS: University of Illinois Chicago College Pediatric Dentistry	UIC: Stephen Jagielo, D.D.S., Member addressed the board with concerns. These concerns included sedation cases being in-line with Permit A. Vena puncture, airway management, and monitoring also needs to be addressed NOT just oral sedation methods; training needs to be offered for these additional methods as well.	UIC: David Avenetti, UIC, Pediatric Dentistry presented to the board regarding Stephen Jagielo's concerns. He stated the directions to the applicants are not very clear. He is recommending these directions be as specific as possible to avoid the

	He is also very concerned with allowing physicians more privileges than what they are presenting during practice. For example: Physicians who have privileges and are allowed to perform IV sedations are submitting cases showing only oral sedations are being presented during practice.	back-and-forth communication. David Avenetti and Brittaney Hill, UIC, Pediatric Dentistry, addressed this concern by indicating that there should be different levels of permitting to align with the different levels of sedation.

- AADB	AADB: Joseph F. Hagenbruch, D.M.D., Member, is not present to present to the board, however, Julie Galloway, D.D.S., Chair, attended the annual meeting in Ashville, NC on October 7-9, 2022. She touched on compact licenses and the effects on compact licenses regarding participation from the board. The board needs to stay informed and involved on compact licenses in order to have input in the future.
Illinois Dental Hygienists Association	Laura Boust, IDHA, is present to present to the board. Just attended the annual session which went well. IDHA just won a community grant from Delta Dental of Illinois that will expand public health dental hygienist certification programs.
Dental Assisting National Board	Adam Block, DANB, is present to present to the board. DANB hosted the Dental Assistant stakeholder forum on the future workforce in Chicago in July 2022. They focused on forming a workforce coalition, improving workforce development plan, building partnerships to enhance diversity, focusing on outreach and recruitment models, and developing a uniform model for dental assistant training education and credentials. It was determined that dental assistants have left the profession due to insufficient pay, negative work culture, and feeling overworked, or dealing with job stress.	Solutions to prevent dental assistants leaving the profession in the future include increasing competitive benefits such as health insurance and paid leave, responsive compensation (wages should be accessed annually), and developing positive workplace culture. Illinois passed a bill at the beginning of the year (HB4645) that establishes a loan repayment and scholarship program

Chief of Oral Health with the Department of Public Health Election of Officers	DANB’s website went live at the end of July. New features on the website include a dental assistant job board and a dental assisting program search. Chief of Oral Health Department of Public Health: Mona Van Kanegan presented to the board. She addressed the workforce surveys that are available for dentists and dental hygienists. These surveys are not mandatory but are recommended to gather more information and data on the workforce. Election of Officers: No Election of Officers	through IDPH to cover costs of dental assisting and other health care professional training.
